Inn-timate Getaways

NAPLES, Fla. – With its intimate charm and elegant ambiance, the Inn on Fifth is the perfect setting for a storybook romance. Lovebirds can escape their everyday lives with a relaxing and romantic getaway at the luxurious property. The Inn on Fifth puts love in the sunny Naples air with a variety of couple-friendly activities, accommodations, and amenities. Couples can order room service for breakfast in bed, champagne for a toast, or even have simultaneous massages at the on-site Spa on Fifth. For those ready to take the leap into matrimony, the Inn provides an exquisite location for the perfect wedding or reception.

Set like a precious gem in the heart of downtown Naples, The Inn on Fifth allows guests to stay centered along trendy Fifth Avenue South. Couples visiting the authentic Naples hotel can step from the European-style lobby to stroll hand-in-hand on the Avenue through the upscale historic district, enjoying dozens of art galleries, clothing boutiques, jewelers, restaurants, and antique shops. Only blocks from the Inn, guests can sink their toes into the warm, white sand beaches of the Gulf of Mexico, enjoy sunset cruises aboard the Naples Princess or the Sweet Liberty catamaran, and wander through even more sophisticated shops and eateries.

The Inn on Fifth's third floor is home to a luxurious, award-winning spa and state-of-the-art fitness facility. Shaped by Feng Shui elements, The Spa on Fifth offers an enticing selection of herbal treatments, expertly applied by highly skilled staff in a tranquil atmosphere. Guests enjoy their lavish treatments in single or couples rooms, with access to men's and women's changing lounges, sauna and steam rooms. In-room massages are also available. In addition to the spa, the Inn's fitness center is complete with the top-of-the-line Nautilus Nitro Pro equipment and cardio machines.

The tropical atmosphere of the Inn on Fifth's outdoor pool and courtyard area is ideal for swimming, sunbathing, or drinks for two. Complete with waterfall, potted palms, birds of paradise and colorful hibiscus, the rooftop pool and hot tub area are the perfect location to unwind and enjoy the company of a loved one.

Couples seeking a casual evening, or an energetic spot for a drink, can venture into McCabe's Irish Pub & Grill. The authentic Dublin Pub, shipped all the way from Ireland, allows guests to sample imported ales, brews, stouts, and whiskeys, and dine on traditional Irish fare, such as corned beef and cabbage, or the Irish-influenced appetizer Brie deep-fried in Guinness stout batter and served with fresh raspberry sauce. The Pub offers live music five nights a week, with a lively blend of Irish and American tunes.

Adjacent to the Pub at the Inn on Fifth is Truluck's Seafood Steak and Crab House. Couples can enjoy a candlelit dinner while feasting on fresh stone crab claws and other seafood delights, brought in directly from Truluck's fishery, just 18 miles south of the restaurant. Truluck's boasts an extensive wine list, with 100 wines by the glass, served in a casually elegant setting.

For couples ready to tie the knot, The Inn of Fifth is a perfect choice for small- to medium-size weddings. The poolside open-air courtyard easily accommodates up to 200 for a tropical Florida-style reception, which complements weddings on the beach, just blocks from the Inn. Following a sunset ceremony on the beach, guests – and even the happy couple – can make their way back to the Inn aboard the whimsical Naples Trolley. After the reception, couples can choose to make their grand exit via horse and carriage, leaving guests behind to enjoy all that Fifth Avenue South has to offer. The breezy Fifth Avenue Terrace, overlooking the trendy avenue, is an ideal setting for showers, rehearsal dinners or a cocktail hour for reception guests.

The staff at the Inn on Fifth excels at meeting expectations for memorable weddings. From lighted trees and elegant chair covers, to white, open-air white tents, ice sculptures and candlelit tables, every detail adds a special touch to the occasion. Whatever they chose, brides-to-be can count on sophisticated service and personal assistance with all arrangements, from florists to photographers. The Inn on Fifth only holds one wedding at a time, ensuring the best possible service and the staff's undivided attention on the special day. Complete wedding packages, which include hors d'oeuvres, open bar, elegant dinner, and a complimentary suite for the happy couple on their wedding night, are available to assist with stress-free planning.
