NAPLES, Fla. (December 20, 2011) – The Inn on Fifth in the heart of downtown Naples has partnered with the renowned TwinEagles Golf & Country Club to offer the exclusive new “Twin on Fifth” golf package that allows guests year-round play on the otherwise private course. Leading the world with more golf courses per capita, Naples is the ideal destination for a golf vacation. The Inn on Fifth is offering guests the ultimate vacation with exclusive golf and upscale accommodations. Starting at $370 for one golfer, the package includes two nights accommodations at The Inn on Fifth, lunch at the course both days, two rounds of golf, cart fee and green fee. The package can also be tailored for additional golfers and groups.

A Par 5 away, TwinEagles Golf and Country Club offers remarkable play on two courses: The Talon Course, which is home of the 2012 Champion’s Tour Ace Classic, and The Eagle Course, home of the 2012 LPGA-CME Titleholders Tournament. Designed by Jack Nicklaus and his son, Jack Nicklaus II, the 18-hole Talon Course features 7,193 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 72. The Eagle course is set for a January 3, 2012 grand opening and features a redesign by Steve Smyers and Patrick Andrews, the team behind several acclaimed courses, including Isleworth in Windermere, Fla. The course will feature imaginatively shaped greens, one of which is over 15,000 square feet.

In addition to access to some of Florida’s best golf, the luxurious Inn on Fifth’s enviable Fifth Avenue location puts guests in walking distance to several bars with lively entertainment and 28 restaurants, including McCabe’s Irish Pub & Grill and Truluck’s Seafood, Steak and Crab House, which are both located in The Inn on Fifth. Guests can enjoy an easy stroll to the white sand beaches of the emerald Gulf, just a few short blocks from the Inn. The Spa on Fifth, located on the third floor of the Inn, provides an array of treatments, including a Foot, Shoulder and Neck Massage designed specifically with golfers in mind.
